

Code of Conduct

In order to ensure the health, safety and welfare of all participants, staff and volunteers, visitors to Metro Parks' community centers must adhere to the following zero tolerance policies and procedures.

Please refrain from the following strictly prohibited, inappropriate conduct:

- Cursing, swearing, racial remarks and/or any form of verbal abuse
- Intimidation, bullying, harassment, fighting and/or other forms of threatening behavior or abuse
- Use or possession of controlled substances, weapons and intoxicants and/or use of tobacco products
- Music containing inappropriate or suggestive language
- Dress deemed inappropriate or offensive by staff, including hats and bandanas
- Loitering outside the program area
- Theft, fraud and/or falsifying documentation
- Sexual harassment and/or personal display of affection
- Inappropriate conversations, language, gossip and/or sarcasm
- Causing damage to the building or its contents
- Going behind the counter without staff permission
- Going into leased/rented spaces
- Yelling, screaming or other loud behavior
- Truancy from school